

On the 10th strong gales from the N. & N. E. forced the ship to the N. & N. E. under short sail to the N. & N. E. made the 1st & 2nd courses N. by E N. & N. E. and a long sea

The latter part birds 15th Coarse the same saw 2 Seals at daylight Commenced Wash Bone & finished at Noon
 Went out View Flying file Lat 26° 01' North Long 32° 40' West

Wednesday March 29th Hauled two large fawns the North and a large sea running saw 2 Sails at 2 P.M. commenced Bundling Bone made 16 Bundles about 14 hundred all this day. It all day washed off decks & c was at 4 P.M. At day light wind hauled to the S.E. steering N.E.
Broke main top gallant stay sail by Repered main top mast stay sail Lat 23° 33' South.
Long 31° 44' West

Thursday March 30th Strong breeze from SE and some squally weather. N N E with all sail out and variously employed with ships, day through the Night & squally, from 7 to 11. At 11 continual heavy rain At 12 M. Calm with a large swell from SE

By act No. chs.
Lett
Long

Barb. Turner Lane, South Atlantic City, N.J.
 (Dried in March 1894)
 Comes under ces with Spizella & Calus, some Merula, Spizella
 84, Coues, Spizella, Merula, Spizella 19, Spizella & Spizella - variable imp. Spizella fitting Spizella

Saturday April 1st Commenced with light & variable Course N N E. Order Bury at West the River & Pott's Wet Note Middle & Eastern Part light breeze & fine weather Course S. S. W.
 Left 18/12 1/2
 Left 21/12 1/2

Sunday April 2nd &
Very light breeze & variable course. W. &
With all sail set sent up four signals Yard & Sail Working on the signal Mid & latter part winds & weather about the Same

Monday April 3rd Commenced with light variable breeze from S.E. to E. Course N.N.E. with at 3 P.M. took a lunar observation of & Moon Long. deducted share from the the Lat. Nearly 2 degrees to the N. of of Chronometer. Wind & latter part fine Weather Saw 2 Sails to the South Winds & by N. & E. by S. Heaved of & rattled down the Tree Pigeon

Sept 15th 1868
 Day 21-22