

A Journal or A Whaling voyage from Stoning to the

Remark on board Saturday May the 8th
All these 24 hours very good weather All sail set light breeze from the SE to ESE At knight wind held to SE took ship held ESE bound towards the Island or others four Keenote the copper sheathing barrels lat 34:28 long 155:17

Remark on board Sunday May the 9th
All this day very strong winds from the NW to NW
All sail set to advantage holding to the East to SE & E latter Part wind increasing took in the topgansails Nothing in site to ends lat 34:40 long 155:44

Remark on board Monday May the 10th
All this 24 hours very fresh winds from the NW holding to the NE All sail set very thick and cloudy weather So ends the day saw poppuss struck one lost skin turned out seen baling pins lat 35 long 155

Remark on board Tuesday May the 11th this 24 hours very strong winds from the North holding to the NE All sail set the people employed at ship duty nothing in site but poppuss thick & cloudy weather So ends these 24 hours lat 36:25 long 156:19 West So ends the day

Remark on board Wednesday May the 12th
All this 24 hours very strong winds from the North holding to the ESE thick and raining sun part at the day through out the knight wind increasing took in topgansails and at 3 All double kept the topsails latter Part wind held to NW So ends

Remark on board Thursday May the 13th this 24 hours commencing with thick weather At 10 AM wind held to West and cleared of set All sail steaming SE by E the copper commenced setting of shooes Nothing in site latter Part cloudy weather lat 35:37 long 156:30

Remark on board Friday May the 14th this 24 hours cloudy weather All sail set to advantage winds from the NW to West steaming SE by E had seen rain squalls saw one finback the people employed in ship duty

Lat 34 Long 156:26 by compass
Got a luncheon oven 162:05 - 161:44

South Pacific Ocean in the Ship Thomas Williams bound to the

Remark on board Saturday May the 15th
All this day cloudy weather All sail set to advantage holding SE by E until 10 AM wind held to North held ESE At 6 PM wind held again to NW and at knight it came up thick & rain strong winds from the NW took in the topgansails lat 36 long 156

Remark on board Sunday May the 16th
All this 24 hours very light breeze from the NW to NW All sail set All hands at West steaming to the NE when the is a breeze of drift to East steaming on the ship saw one finback lat 33:45 long 158:58

Remark on board Monday May the 17th
All these 24 hours very light breeze from the NW to North All sail set holding ESE sun part at the knight Calm at one PM on board the shankers and Wopand it Nothing in site So ends lat 33:45 long 158:15 June 1st

Remark on board Tuesday May the 18th
All these 24 hours very light wind from the SE to SE 3/4 E holding to the Eastward the people employed in ship duty saw humpbacks bent the shankers All sail set lat 33 long 159

Remark on board Wednesday May the 19th
All these 24 hours strong winds from the NW holding to the Eastward All sail to advantage At 10 AM wind held to NW and had sun rain squalls latter Part it cleared of set All sail set lat 33-24 long 155:45 West

Remark on board Thursday May the 20th this 24 hours commencing with very squally weather All set to advantage winds from the NW & NW steaming SE & SE by E latter Part blew very hard from the NW took in topgansails At 3 PM wind held to NW and had a hard rain squall double kept the topsail took in the mainsail steaming SE by E saw one finback So ends these 24 hours
lat 32:07 long 154:03 West