

Journal of Whaling voyage from Stonington to the Remark on board Friday October the 29

Friday October
 the 29

this day commence with very fresh winds from the NW At daylight set whale topsails 9th & 10th Standing to the Eastward untill one PM took ship heeled up W by S latter part wind increasing Double Heft the topsails the Copper setting up. Shores saw two ships & whales in site
 At knight took in sail lat 35 45 long 1 12 30 West

Remark on board Saturday October the 30

Saturday October
 the 30

this day commence with a gale from the NW & heeling to the Eastward At daylight made sail from the ship Part wind held to NW & very bad sea on Steaming to the saw two ships & whales At knight shortened sail heeling to the South lat 35 57 long 1 12 37 West to Ende the 30

Remark on board Sunday October the 31

Sunday October
 the 31

this day very strong weather wind Steaming W by N At daylight made sail saw three ships saw one whale but was going so fast no time to lower the boats saw blackish line in chase struck three got two took to the ship and histed them in
 At knight shortened sail lat 35 30 long 1 11 47 West

Remark on board Monday November the 1

Monday November
 the 1

this day commence with very strong winds Standing to the NW
 At daylight made sail and at 10 AM saw a gam or sperm whales lined in chase the whales was two miles off to the SW At 11 struck and the iron snout struck & shattered the iron snout then struck & shattered killed him and at 1 PM got him to the ship At half past four commence cutting cold sat getting of before knight took in sail lat 35 long 1 7

Remark on board Tuesday November the 2

Tuesday November
 the 2

this day very good weather light breeze from the NW
 At daylight commence cutting the whale and At 1 PM got him in set the try marks & going the Armatae Run down to us spoke as she had what taken nothing since she see him last left of SE nothing in site At knight lat 34 57 long 1 70 50

Remark on board Wednesday November the 3

Wednesday November
 the 3

this day very fine weather At daylight made sail very light breeze Steaming to the SE Improved in sailing the whale saw a gam or whales two miles off saw them three times but saw no more or them could not tell what they was At knight lined up the topsails to Ende the 3 lat 35 16 long 1 70 25

South Pacific Ocean and New Zealand in the Ship Thomas Williams

Thursday November
 the 4

this day very hazy weather light wind from the NW
 At daylight made sail Improved in sailing the whale saw two ships spoke the Elites or Hudson he had taken 4 whales since we see him she had 22 00 barrels 25 months out At knight shortened sail saw whales two late to lower to Ende the 4 lat 35 46

Remark on board Friday November the 5

Friday November
 the 5

this day very good weather At daylight made sail Standing to the Eastward saw one whight whale lined in chase struck & killed him took the whale to the ship and cut him in saw two ships spoke ship, Harrier or Harrier 2000 barrels or oil. Month out set our try marks & going stood down 10 fms or sperm oil on the larboard side on the mainmast latter part Improved in sailing the whale
 At knight took in sail lat 35 48 long 1 69 28

Remark on board Saturday November the 6

Saturday November
 the 6

this day very good weather At daylight made sail Steaming to the NW saw two ships saw a bundance of finback At 6 PM saw whight whales lined in chase but could not get past so when knight left the whales came on board shortened sail saw a finback or whight whales two late lat 35 48 long 1 69 12

Remark on board Sunday November the 7

Sunday November
 the 7

this day commence with fresh winds from the Westward Standing to the Westward & Northward Eastward part sail set latter part very strong wind & bad sea on Double Heft the topsails and stood down the sail in the main hatch one tear At daylight got through boiling lat 35 43 long 1 68 48 West to Ende

Remark on board Monday November the 8

Monday November
 the 8

this day very strong winds from the Westward heeling to the Northward untill 8 AM took stand to the Eastward wind held to the SE heeling to Northward & Westward saw one sail and the ship under whale topsails yet nothing in site At knight took in sail heeled up SW lat 35 09 long 1 68 26

Remark on board Tuesday November the 9

Tuesday November
 the 9

this day very strong winds from the NW Steaming to the SW saw two ships spoke ship Armatae or New London she had taken two whales since we see him last At knight took in sail in company with the Armatae No whales in site throughout the day

lat 35 48 long 1 62 40 About