

Ther. 34 SUN. APRIL 16, 1893

Wea.
Snow

To day Commences with a breeze from S.E. with snow hauling gradually to S.E. sea break out at interval foggy horizon Afternoon wind more moderate plenty snow at 4-30 P.M. hauled to Westward and blowed
on fresh hove too under lower main topsail
and storm staysails
heading about North

Bar. 29.30

Lat- 37. 20 N

Long 174. 48 W.

In. pocket-#3805-

Ther.

MON. APRIL 17, 1893

Wea.

To day Commences with a breeze from N.W. ship heading N.W. by N. morning
all sail wind died away
got steam at 9 am heavy swell from West-The vessel hauled to north at 6 P.M. stopped steam strong breeze
from North ship
under prudent sail heading N.W.

at 12 P.M.

58. 36 N
175. 44 W

put out Starboard
& Waist Boats -