

Ther.

MON. MAY 8, 1893

Wea.

~~XX~~
 To day has been a breeze
 from Westward pleasant weather ship going around in case ice
 saw a number of Brown Heads have had them out-
 on the ice have lowered
 two boats ice closed up had to haul the boats over the ice to get on board Belvedere & Navarch both Whaling saw one other steamer to P.W.

61.21 N,
 178.33 E,

Ther.

TUES. MAY 9, 1893

Wea.

~~XX~~
 Took a Bowhead
 light breeze from N.E.W. some thick saw number of Whales lowered 3 boats 1 B. Boat & 2 others killed Whales instantly got him out in at 2.30 P.M.
 cleared away head sent watch below at 6 P.M.
 saw Belvedere & Navarch
 with boats down ice
 quite close. saw one other steamer to P.W. at 7 P.M. Belvedere North Navarch N.E.

No Whales