

Ther.

WED. MAY 10, 1893

Wea.

To day has been a breeze
 from N.W. light at six
 P.M. wind hauled to E.S.E. fresh breeze have steamed to north about 5 miles & steamer
 in sight Cape Haverin
 N by W 1/2 W in sight
 saw Belvedere + Harward
 with boat down have seen one whale to day
 at a distance ship heeled
 to north employed in boiling no ball on.

61. 53 N
 178. 53 E

Ther.

THURS. MAY 11, 1893

Wea.

light wind from
 pleasant weather
 ship lying around in loose ice saw no whales
 to day three at night
 Cape Haverin North 1/2
 miles finished boiling
 at 4 P.M.

61. 54 N
 178. 51 E