

Ther.

TUES. MAY 30, 1893

Wea.

Light. Airs and Calms
 Ship tied up to the ice
 moved out in to the hole
 with the Thrasher Karach + Karluk went out of sight to P.C. another steamer came in sight
 to M.N. call it Belvedere,

62. 04M,
 178. 49M

at 7 PM sounded
 got 65 fathoms

Ther.

WED. MAY 31, 1893

Wea.

have steamed to Eastward about all day came through considerable ice. Thrasher in company. at 2 PM came in thick fog at 4-30 tied up to the ice. Capt Macomber came on board. Light wind
 from North.

62. 03M
 177. 49M

Ends May 1893