

Ther.

WED. OCT. 11, 1893

Wea.

To day has been a
light & baffling wind
from Eastward thick & snowy at 4 P.M. wind hauled to N.E. with much snow breezing up gradually shortened sail before dark quite a chop rising thinks will haul a breeze may be a gale ship heading to E.S.E. saw two sail to Eastward

No Obs^{rs}

blew heavy all night
wind backed around from N.E. to W.S.W. and more at 3 a.m.

Ther.

THURS. OCT. 12, 1893

Wea.

To day has been a light baffling wind from Westward ship on opposite rocks forenoon much snow afternoon over cast & cloudy at 12 m.
sounded had 16 fathoms thinks I am in the vicinity of Herald Shoals at 11-30 wind hauled to North more ship to West

Lat: 70. 32 N.
No Long.