

Ship Triton of New Bedford in Sunday Dec 10th

H
2
4
6
8
10 12
2
4
6
8
10 12

course wind
S by N N E

This day commencing with strong breeze with squalls of rain all sail Middle and Latter part wind backing with heavy squalls of rain ship under double reefed top sail,
N by E

Monday Dec 11th

H 2
4
6
8
10 12
2
4
6
8
10 12

course wind
N by N S
S by N S E
S by N S E

First part more moderate all sail heavy with fine sails in sight Middle part fine weather Latter part the same watch employed in mending main top sail and shrouding another one

Lat by G 21.16 S
Long by G 39.30 W

Tuesday Dec 12th

H
2
4
6
8
10 12
2
4
6
8
10 12

course wind
N by N E
S by N E
S by N E

First part fine weather all sail Watch employed repairing the main top sail Middle and Latter part light air without the old fore spencer and set at cap

Lat by G 22.30 S
Long by G 40.15 W

the South Atlantic capt George White Carter 1850
Wednesday Dec 13th

H
2
4
6
8
10 12
2
4
6
8
10 12

course wind
S by N E
N by N S
N by N S

This day commencing with light air and fine weather all sail Middle and Latter part the same

Lat by G 23.33 S
Long by G 41.00 W

Thursday Dec 14th

H 2
4
6
8
10 12
2
4
6
8
10 12

course wind
N by N S
S by N S E
S by N S E

First part light breeze all sail but sails in sight Middle and Latter part fine clear weather

Lat by G 24.32 S
Long by G 42.04 W

Friday Dec 15th

H 2
4
6
8
10 12
2
4
6
8
10 12

course wind
S by N E
S by N E
S by N E

First part fine clear weather all sail one sail in sight Middle and Latter part fine clear weather with fresh breeze all sail

Lat by G 26.30 S
Long by G 42.00 W