

Ship Boston of N. Bedford
Wednesday Aug 8th First part of day light breeze from the south, middle and latter part the same

Thursday Aug 9th First part strong breeze from
the south, middle and latter part the same thick fog. Started sea gale, scattered

Friday Aug 10th
First part calm thick fog watch employed getting salt scattered in the air middle the same latter light breeze from eastward

October 2nd Capt Geo White writes 1845
Saturday Aug 11th
First part light breeze from the eastward watch employed getting salt scattered middle and latter part the same

Sunday Aug 12th
First part light breeze from the south ship heading to westward middle and latter part weather the same

Monday Aug 13th
First part light breeze from the south ship working under power Aug 8th & 9th middle and latter part employed getting of water