

Ship. History of New Bedford
Tuesday Jan 23rd

First party strong base from the Eastward & rapidly showing decrease in the number of votes at present the balance of Iowa leaning of a little bit "Middle and latter party" over the same

Monday Dec 24th

First part starting breeze leaves the Eastward at 6 P.M. a part landed these birds promised to be over back Middle and latter part, strong breeze with heavy squalls

Tues, May Dec 25 - M

It is a vast & strong large beam the east end with three square at sunset to the in sail and set boats were watered ship heading to the South & Middle and latter part, the same

Abscoring

555-

Wednesday Dec 26th

First part strong breeze from the Eastward ship under double reefed top sail heading to the north Middle the same latter all sail employed repeating again top sail

2. Att. by J. H. 17.34 L. 1
Long. L. 4.10 14.8 34 W. 1

Thurs day Dec 2nd 18

First part fine clear weather with fresh breeze from the Eastward. All sail at 2 P.M. was the j-lanes Masted or Canvas kept off for it at sunset; took in sail the j-lanes bearing of 4 miles dist ship heading to the South. Wind to the same latter all sail ship heading to the North

Left by B 17 32 S

Thursday Dec 28th

First part strong breeze from the Eastward ship heading to the south all sail employed in propelling her on Middle and latter part, whether the same

Port L. 15.50
 Long L. 14.733