Journal of S. Smith Sea Voy from New

March 24th at 11 P.M. took the anchor from Salmon harbour with a fine breeze at S in company with the whole ship's company and Steward & S and at 11³⁰ he changed the pilot and at noon passed 1/4 of a mile to the land of the better, putting from a whaling ship from the S. Atlantic but we did not speak her nor hunt the wreckers Sunday 25th First part begins with strong winds from S S W and Steward & S. I went to midnight and then 6 and had all of the bathymetry at sunset single reef topsails and at 7 P.M. saw 2 schooners of the weather began steaming on the wind at 11³⁰ P.M. all hands Monday 26th The whole 24 hours a fine breeze from S S W and S S W at 3 P.M. passed to the westward of the schooner to the N. and at 4 P.M. saw the bathymetry of the weather began steaming to the S S W and saw her at noon about 4 miles of the beam so ends with the morn pretty much new there saw bathymetry Tuesday 27th Began with strong winds from S S W with fog and the bathymetry site saw a school of black fish but did not get any of them so ends with all hands employed in ships duty
