

June 1834 Off Shore Ground

Friday 21st the Commence with strong S.E. breeze at 3:40 saw a small boat to the Westward and at 1000 it was in sight at the Lee quarter and it was a small boat of four men and it spoke her it was the Comers of 1833 and it was on the west with 3 or 4 men and had some letters but lost sight of the Comers and had a ship to the westward to land.

Saturday 22nd the Commence with strong S.E. breeze to the S.W. and Eastward and a ship of the weather seen and in the morning lost sight of at 1000 the ship and saw 2 whales and 2 small boats and part of but they were not big as at 1000 lost sight of them to westward and part up the boats and considered ourselves fortunate.

Sunday 23rd the Commence with 2 gales of wind and a heavy sea running and we were fortunate enough to
at 4:30 saw a small boat to the Westward and at 1000 lost sight of it and it was a small boat and part of but they were not big as Monday 24th the Commence with strong S.E. breeze and the ship under short sail. Latter part the same at 10:15 saw a small boat to the Westward and Tuesday 25th the Commence with moderate S.E. breeze and made some sail and took the ship to S.W. at 4:33 Middle point light south of us. Latter part at 1000 fine weather to land.

Wednesday 26th the Commence with light winds and the ship at 12 saw a large whale and saw at 3:15 all 3 boats and the schooner quarter and at 1000 struck him and drove him and continued the pursuit and saw the schooner struck again and parted from him.

June 1834 Off Shore Ground

Thursday 27th the Commence with strong S.E. breeze the ship at 12 saw a large whale and saw
at 3:15 all 3 boats and the schooner quarter and
at 1000 struck him and drove him and continued
the pursuit and saw the schooner
struck again and parted from him.

Friday 28th the Commence with strong S.E. breeze the ship at 12 saw a large whale and saw
at 3:15 all 3 boats and the schooner quarter and
at 1000 struck him and drove him and continued
the pursuit and saw the schooner
struck again and parted from him.

Saturday 29th the Commence with strong S.E. breeze the ship at 12 saw a large whale and saw
at 3:15 all 3 boats and the schooner quarter and
at 1000 struck him and drove him and continued
the pursuit and saw the schooner
struck again and parted from him.

Sunday 30th the Commence with strong S.E. breeze the ship at 12 saw a large whale and saw
at 3:15 all 3 boats and the schooner quarter and
at 1000 struck him and drove him and continued
the pursuit and saw the schooner
struck again and parted from him.

Monday 1st July the Commence with strong S.E. breeze the ship at 12 saw a large whale and saw
at 3:15 all 3 boats and the schooner quarter and
at 1000 struck him and drove him and continued
the pursuit and saw the schooner
struck again and parted from him.