

Log Book of Ship Vineyard of Edgartown

Wednesday April 23
A gale from NW hading of NW in ships in site Mid Part light Winds Latter Part light Winds from NW hading NNE under topicals and courses 2 ships in site the bark of Duty

Latt 51-44 Long 151-22

Thursday April 24
light Winds from NW hading NNE fine weather At sunset spoke ship Garcia of St Johns Mid Part Strong Winds Latter Part Strong Winds from W hading NNE under double reef topicals 2 ships in site the Portague frank of Duty with the bark
Latt 51-35

Friday April 25
Strong Winds from W and over east weather hading NNE under double reef implorid in setting up shacks for water 2 ships in site Mid Part light Winds Latter Part Strong breeze from NW hading
NNE under double reef 2 ships in site

Saturday April 26 light Winds from NW and over east weather hading NNE under short sail implorid in setting up shacks 2 ships in site one smacken of Duty with the bark Mid Part light Winds Latter Part light Winds from the E hading to the N saw 1 Whale and Lord the bats and chert could not strike the Whale being shi
Latt 52-40 Long 148-47

Continued 1845 Edwin Coffin Master

Sunday April the 27 light Winds from E and fine weather hading to the north 2 ships in site At sunset spoke ship Murchey of Say harbor Mid Part light Winds Latter Part light Winds from E saw sulphur bottoms 3 ships in site
Latt 53-33 Long 148-22

Monday April 28
light Winds from E steering NW 3 ships in site spoke ship mount Polar of New Bedford Mid Part light Winds Latter Part Strong Winds from NE and over east weather saw 2 vete Whales lord could not strike 1 ship in site
Latt 54-44

Tuesday April 29
Strong Winds from NE and over east weather saw Whales and lord an thrust could not strike 2 ships in site Mid Part Strong Winds Latter Part Strong Winds from NE hading ESE saw finbacks
Latt 54-50 Long 149-13

Wednesday April 30
Strong Winds from NE hading
ESE saw nothing Mid Part Strong Winds Latter Part Strong Winds from NE At 9 A.M. lord for a Whale and saw him no more Latt 55-13 Long 149-33

Thursday May 1
A gale from NE saw a Whale to suggid to lose Mid Part a gale Latter Part a gale from NE and over east weather hading ESE
Latt 54-54