

Transactions on board bark Warsaw Monday the 13th Breeze with light westerly winds and no. of cloudy at 11 AM tacked ship heading S.W.
saw several finbacks dble reef topsails

Tuesday the 14th Breeze with light N.E. winds and Lat 44.81 a thick snow storm later part wind bordered to the N.W. and squally heading to Wednesday the 15th Light westerly winds and raining Lat 45.30 saw a ship steering to the S.E. saw Long 171.36 were finbacks under double reef topsails heading to the southward &c

Thursday the 16th Breeze with light westerly winds Lat 42.48 and cloudy middle part wind hals to the S.W. & steering W by S under short topsails later part strong gales under close reef N.E. sail and fore sail

Friday the 17th Breeze with strong gales from the westward with squalls of hail and No. of snow parted the stay sail and torn heading in the sail at 10 AM were several from W. shore & streaks out of the S. boat and lost W. care away the day by rolling her under

Saturday 18th Strong westerly gales with squalls Lat 43.20 of hail fired the stay sail at 6 AM were Long 171.12 ship heading to the S.W. west

Sunday the 19th Light westerly winds and cloudy Lat 42.22 heading to the southward under all Long 170.46 sail saw nothing at 7 PM tacked heading N.W.

Monday the 20th Breeze with strong winds from the southward and heavy at 10 AM Lat 42.37 in top 2 sail on S.W. at 10 AM reef the Long 169.71 topsails at 3 dble reef the N.E. at 5 AM took in the fore & at 7 AM hove to and S.W. & under double reef N.E. and fore sail

Cruising on whale ground Capt. J. B. Barnum Tuesday April 21st Breeze with strong gales of wind from the S.W. west with thick fog later part wind hals to the Northward at 7 AM were ship and the westward more moderate no observations

Wednesday the 22nd light westerly winds and cloudy Lat 43.17 at 6 AM made all sail both in the S. boat and Long 167.40 repaired her at 4 PM tacked ship to the westward wind S.W. at 7 PM dble reef topsails

Thursday 23rd Strong gales from the westward at 9 AM in fore Lat 45.48 topsails made the same later part wind Long 166.34 hals to the northward were ship at 5 AM & S.W.

Wednesday 24th Breeze with moderate westerly winds and Lat 45.22 with snow middle more pleasant made a new Long no. of day for the S. boat sent the S. sail to repair

Saturday the 25th Strong gales from the westward attended with fog sailing by heading N.W.

Sunday the 26th Breeze with light winds and calm middle light winds from the S.W. with rain run off to the W.W. at 2 shorten sail at 5 AM too under close reef N.E. sail and stay sail heading to Monday the 27th Strong breeze from the westward with Lat 45.05 fog sailing too under close reef N.E. sail and Long 165.05 fore sail sent the main sail &c

Tuesday 28th Breeze with light winds and calm at 4 Lat 45.45 saw a hump back middle light wind from no. of the Eastward run off to the S.W. later part rain and foggy at 6 hove too under short reef S.W. reef

Wednesday 29th Breeze with light winds from the Northward Lat 44.84 at 6 AM made sail and kept off S.W. saw several Long 163.01 finbacks shifted the topsail to the main forward and sent a new one

Thursday 30th Breeze with strong westerly winds and foggy Lat 42.07 at 1 PM were ship to the southward short sail so ends this month