

62 Trust in god and conquer Best Thursday Dec 24th 1852. com with strong gale and squally weather Latter part the same. thus ends Jan 2 days. Lat 46.24 Long 152.00

Friday 25th com with strong gale and fair weather. Middle part the same saw 1 bark standing to the southward caught 2 dolphins and but no Whales. Latter part still strong gale and a heavy sea and no prospect of a better day to morrow but god will not mine be done saw a bark standing to the S. E. under short reef topsails Lat 26-13 Long 157-40

Phoebe W Winslow
Sactonveth

63 Phoebe Winslow 1852
Saturday Christmas Dec 25th 1852 com with a strong gale of wind from the East. this day my wife is 28 years old if she is living and has got a poor sailor for a husband but it is not the words for her for that May she live to enjoy many more years of life and may they prove to be far happier than those that are past and heaven protect her in all her outgoings and incomings and guide her in the paths of virtue and honor and teach her so to live that she may feel that god is the only refuge for all mankind and may our dear children so live as to be an ornament to their parents the prayer of the husband and father John Winslow