

132 Remarks On Board Barque Wave from Monday 13th 1854 Com with Light airs

Middle & Latter part variable windy
Course S W Lat 29.21 Long 66.19

Tuesday 14th Com with Light Breezes and Squally Milder & Latter part calm

Saw 2 Seals Wind variable course S W
Lat 29.37 Long 66.53

Wed 15th Com with Light Breezes and calm weather variable Course S W Milder & Latter part milder and latter part Light Wind Saw 2 fin back Lat 30.58 Long 67.52

Thurs 16th Com with strong gales from the N by W. During N by W all passed
Sail set Saw a Bird standing to the South
Lat 32.20 Long 68.00

Friday 17th Com with party squall weather from various quarters Milder &
Latter part the same

Lat by Acc 33.40
Long by Do 69.30

133 Tuleah Bay Towards New Bedford

Sat 18th 1854 Com with rainy weather from the Westward course S W by W Wind S W Milder & Latter part
A Heavy gale from the Northward Leading W by N. took in the N by Sent Down the Main royal yard

Sund 19th Com with a heavy gale of Wind from the N W by W head
W by S Milder part the same
Latter part moderate chills
Lat 34.43 Long 70.41

Lat 34.04 Long 70.17

Mon 20th 1854 Com with strong gales from the N W Milder part wind S W by W head N by E we had a fair wind a short time to day and I felt as though we was going to get home but it all dashed for the wind is ahead again and I do not see any prospect of getting there this month yet Lat 34.25 Long 73.25

Tues 21st Com with strong gales and squally from the North head and opposite Tacks Saw several Seals
Lat 35.02 Long 74.11