

Remarks onboard Dr Wm Dayhis

Sunday Jan 22 1888 Lat 11-46 Long 148-41
 P.M. wind at NEast course W by N. half W a squally night morning at 11 isix a whale breaching seemed to be a killing at work breaking out water sounds

Monday Jan 23 1888 Lat 13-28 Long 146-13 P.M. at work on block at half past five raised land run along to the North point and howe to keep off at daybreak took a pilot, anchored at 11 A.M. stowed sails at anchor in Guan

Tuesday Jan 24 1888
 P.M. at work on even work aloft and oiled the spars so ends

Wednesday Jan 25 1888
 P.M. at painting and oiling things trades so ends

Thursday Jan 26 1888
 P.M. at painting, one watch went ashore for liberty

Friday Jan 27 1888
 P.M. at scraping and painting even work on deck A.M. tanning down so ends.

Saturday Jan 28 1888
 P.M. at work tanning down rigging a fine night morning went ashore for the watch at 11 A.M. port watch went ashore for liberty so ends

Sunday Jan 29 1888
 P.M. nothing occurred of any consequence strong trades so ends

Horace Montross Master

Monday Jan 30 1888
 P.M. finished taring down rigging and washed boats squally night A.M. watch came on board so ends

Tuesday Jan 31 1888
 P.M. at washing ship fine night
 A.M. at washing paint work
 so ends

Wednesday Feb 1 1888 P.M. at work washing ship and finished ship string trades

Thursday Feb 2 1888
 P.M. at work painting boats Christopher McConell has been off duty since January 9th and is now very sick. this night took some Balad on shore so ends

Friday Feb 3 1888
 P.M. still at anchor painting boats squally night. A.M. painting ship outside so ends

Saturday Feb 4 1888
 P.M. at work painting ship outside raining night. let the crew go on shore this morning so ends

Sunday Feb 5 1888
 P.M. crew still on shore fine night A.M. all but three of the crew are on board so I put the cook and one boatsman George Gagnon in irons.

Monday Feb 6 1888
 P.M. at work painting ship outside strong trades with rain squall morning rain all the time so ends all