

Removes Car Board Back South of New Bedford Monday Aug 2nd

This day opens with lying at anchor. Watch employed in boiling oil finished about 6 P.M. at daylight the first and second boats went forbidding the steamer fell and hurt himself and the Capt. took him ashore to see the boat. They all came back about a clock & on the 3rd boats

Tuesday Aug 3rd

This day opens with lying at anchor at daylight sent the same two boats to cruising along side about sunset the steamer off duty

Wednesday Aug 4th

This day opens with lying at anchor at daylight sent the same boats off cruising came back about sunset the steamer on duty so 4 boats this day

Thursday Aug 5th

This day opens with lying at anchor at daylight all hands went at work starting down oil finished about dark so 4 boats this day

Friday Aug 6th

This day opens with lying at anchor about daylight the same 2 boats went on cruising saw and saw and half going quick boats came along side about sunset Capt. took his boat and went up to the town came back about 4 P.M. he went to look for a man that was missing this morning he took the same that was along side his name was Joseph Costa came on board in fish bay

Robinson Winter Humphreys at Seines Island Saturday Aug 7th

This day opens with a fresh breeze from the S.W. sent the same 2 boats on cruising about 9 A.M.
Capt. got under weigh and went to the windward anchorage about 1 P.M. in a fallow of water and 25 of cable about 2 miles S. of the town boats came along side about dark so 4 boats

Sunday Aug 8th called all hands at a clock and went off the rock of the distance part of the fore wind in shore all hands on board at 7 o'clock & on the 4th boats

Monday Aug 9th

This day opens with lying at anchor the same 2 boats went on cruising about a clock & on the second boat went on and started a whale with a ball then the other boat started and they killed the whale about 6 P.M. and commenced to saw for the land anchored the whale about 10 P.M. and the 2 boats started where the third boat left the ship about 6 P.M. to find the boats but did not see them and came back so 4 boats this day

Humphreys Back from Blamership's Whale 60 lbs