

Nov Thursday 7-1901 these day begins with light bread and squall weather one sail in sight running steer 3. latter part the same working on the fast ropes so ends

Lt 20.52 Long 24.53

Nov Friday 8-1901 these begins with light bread and clear weather running steer south tow sails in sight latter part the same broke out sugar so ends

Lt 18.39 Long 24.20

Nov Saturday 9-1901 these day begins with light bread and cloudy at 2.30 a.m. made Santo Anthony found cornometer out 60 miles betting the whale day at sun set started off shore till 3 o'clock a.m. so ends

Nov Sunday 10-1901 these day light bread and clear betting the whale day at 6 p.m. got to the windward of Santo Vincente took to the northern until 11 p.m. took again southwards so ends

Nov Monday 11-1901 these day begins with fresh bread and clear weather went in sat. vincente drop the boat and went ashore capt took his wife to the doctor and some medicine for her got 15.00 of oranges some forlers and eggs come on board and start to brava so ends

Nov Tuesday 12-1901 these day got to brava drop the boat and capt went ashore at 3.30 p.m. the boat come on board capt went up town stay ashore that night so ends

Nov Wednesday 13-1901 these day capt ship second mate and come on board to wait for the second mate to get ready until Sunday so ends

Nov Thursday 14-1901 these day begins with light bread and clear weather broke out bread & flour latter part 3 p.m. went ashore fishing at 4 p.m. come back with a good lot of it so ends

Nov Friday 15-1901 these day begins with light bread bread and clear weather lay off and on latter part the same so ends

Nov Saturday 16-1901 these day begins with light bread and clear drop one boat and went fishing got quite lot of it latter part the same so ends

Nov Sunday 17-1901 these day begins with light bread and cloud at 5 a.m. the boat and went ashore at 12 noon come board running down long with land to get the second mate Anthony D Silva asked to go ashore on his free will and the captain consented to let him go partent to be sick. he will send his name in front of two witnesses.