

Dec second mate
still sick

Sunday 15-1901 these day begins with light S.W. wind and clear weather the whole sail out saw fine barbs cow and calf latter part the same saw granper saw one steamer to end

Lat 28.219

Dec second mate
still sick

Monday 16-1901 these day begins with calm and clear weather cut up lower and up topsail to make tarpaulins fore the gunse cask broke out bread the last on the cask latter part the same saw granper to end

Lat 28.595 Long 42.50

Dec second mate
still sick

Tuesday 17-1901 these day begins with calm and clear weather take down the main sail and repair at 3. p. m. hnd main sail saw granper latter part light southeasterly wind to end

Lat 29.30 Long 43.20

Dec second mate
still sick

Wednesday 18-1901 these day begins with light easterly wind and clear weather saw granper latter part fine breeze and clear running steer S by W to end

Lat 30.43-9 Long 44.17 W

Dec
still sick

Thursday 19-1901 these day begins with fresh northeasterly wind and clear weather running steer S.W. saw brechoas latter part the same at sun set short down sail tow lower top sail over her to so end

Lat 32.405 Long 44.57 W

Dec
still sick

Friday 20-1901 these day begins with heavy northeast gale and clear lig to under lower main topsail and stay sail latter part the same to end

Lat 33.105 Long 46.21 W

Dec
still sick

Saturday 21-1901 these day begins with fresh gale and cloud latter part rainy weather saw granper lay under lower main topsail and stay sails to end

Dec
still sick

Sunday 22-1901 these day begins with light breeze from S.W. and clear weather at 6 a.m. saw school of black fish at noon saw granper at 4 p. m. saw cacare at sun set short down under tow topsail and jib to end

Lat 33.305 Long 46.57 W

Dec
still sick
raised whales

Monday 23-1901 these day begins with fresh northerly wind and cloud under short sail at noon raised whales going quide in to northwest did not drop a boat latter part the same to end

Lat 33.315 Long 47.23 W