And on this day the ~~first~~^{15th} day of December, in the ^{year} aforesaid, again came the said appellant, the Master of the said vessel, being, by me, the said Notary, duly sworn, to speak the truth, on his oath, of his own free will & voluntary mind, before me, the said Notary, affirming, declaring, testifying & saying, in manner following; that is to say, that the said vessel sailed from Galveston, Texas, aforesaid, bound to New York on the thirtieth day of October last past, laden with a cargo of Cotton, and Hides ———— this appellant being on board of said vessel, in the capacity of Master & Commander; & at the time of her departure from Galveston, aforesaid, upon her said intended voyage
