Newport, J^r,

Be it remembered, that on the sixth day of April A. D. 1847, I George W.

Newport, in the State aforesaid, by the authority of said State duly elected, commissioned and sworn, residing at Newport, within said County, at the request of William A. Clarke Esquire, Esquire, presented the original note, of which a true copy is on the other side written, to Daniel B. Davis, the drawer, the days of payment having expired, to which he answered "that he had failed in business, and that all his property was in the hands of his assignee, Nicholas Underwood." That on application to the said Underwood, for the payment of said note, he answered "he could not pay it as there was not funds sufficient for the payment thereof in his hands.

Wherefore, I the said Notary, at the domiciliary instance of request of said said parties, they then presents as publicly protested, as were against the drawer & Endorsers of said note, as against all others concerned, for all costs, damages, charges, and Interest tained, & to be hereafter sustained, for want of payment of the said note.
