

May Monday 15-1905 these day begins with fresh southwest winds and cloudy under short sail boiling got time at 12 noon stowed some oil down and pump water out ready to stow down later part the same so ends
Lat 37.40 Long 72.12

May Tuesday 16-1905 these day begins with fresh southwest gal and small later part the same day under lower top sails so ends
Lat 38.01 Long 73.08

May Wednesday 17-1905 these day begins with light southwest wind and overcast under short sail heading to the west saw black fish later part the same so ends

May Thursday 18-1905 these day begins with northwesterly winds and fog steer SSW. morn lay up the with barbae later part light southwest saw steamer, one whaling schooner in sight at sun set short down sail so ends Lat 37.01 Long 73.55

May Friday 19-1905 these day begins with light southwesterly wind these weather three whaling schooners in sight at day light raised whales drop three boats could refuse to go in the boat in the L.B. capt send him in the W.B. so he did go one boats got fast come a long side at 8.30.

and capt call the cook and ask him if he was going to obey orders or not and he said that he would do what capt told him but the barster of the mate he would not and capt put him on the snout keep him there for a bout 25 minutes and the cook told the capt that he was ready to do what ever he was told so the capt let him out spoad schoar golden city got 10 barrels of yams and give him one boat at 5.30. rendered school whales drop two boat got one come a long side at 7.10. p.m. boiling so ends
Lat 36.45

May Saturday 20-1905 these day begins with fresh northern cutting the whale and made sail at 9. a.m. raised school of small whales drop two boats both got fast one iron down went on and stroke the other boat line parit went on and stroke again but the iron down got one cutting him in and made sail in the stream one three master in sight two whaling schooner in sight at 7. a.m. boiling at the works so ends
Lat 36.45 Long 72.26