

July Tuesday 18-1905 these day begins with fresh S.W. and squally weather got true boiling pump out water and set up shoals later part the same so ends
Lat 33:10 Long 53:30

July Wednesday 19-1905 these day begins with fresh S.W. wind and cloudy stoward the oil down and set up shoals later part moderate same found some things on the water not know what is it so ends
Lat 32:40 Long 52:54

July Thursday 20-1905 these day begins with light S.W. wind and clear weather spoke schr. John man to boiling running steer E. saw a carcass at sun set short down sail so ends
Lat 33:05 Long 52:09

July Friday 21-1905 these day begins with light S.W. wind and clear weather running steer N. later part by the wind heading S.E. by E. at sun set short down sail so ends
Lat 33:12 Long 51:45

July Saturday 22-1905 these day begins with light southerly wind and squally raised a brack to the windward three times later part the same so ends
Lat 33:01 Long 50:30

July Sunday 23-1905 these day begins with light southerly wind and clear the whale sail out at 10:20 a.m. raised a lone whale drop three boats got fast came a longside at 2 p.m. got the cutting gear up and start cutting working on the head at 6 stop set the watches so ends

July Monday 24-1905 these day begins with light southerly wind and clear three whales in sight grayhound palatine and pedro veralla chase whales cutting got the head off and body in the whales came up to us we drop two boats got fast came a longside at 11:30 a.m. got the gun in and bell the case boiling spoke grayhound so ends

July Tuesday 25-1905 these day begins with light southerly wind and squally boiling spoke schr. pedro veralla she raised a large whale chase but did not get all of him the whale remained long side later part clear so ends

July Wednesday 26-1905 these day begins with light southerly wind and clear start cutting got the head off and body in start boiling in the body stoward oil down later part the same so ends one whaling bark in sight