

June Friday 15 - 1906 This day began with good weather clear and smooth sea with very light W wind steering by the wind all sails out in the afternoon the wind change to the SW blown very strong. Shorting down standing on the starboard tack under low sails. two whaling bark in sight
Lat 31.55 N Long 51.12 W and so end

June Saturday 16 - 1906 This day began with rugged weather dark cloud strong NW wind steering by the wind on the port tack under short sails all day one whaler in sight Grey Hound m/c

June Sunday 17 - 1906 This day began with good weather clear sky moderate sea with a NW wind steering by the wind on the starboard tack until noon go round on the port tack at evening shorting sails standing along the same way. Lat 31.50 N. Long 51.03 W so end

June Monday 18 1906 This day began with rugged sea and smoky weather with a strong NW wind standing by the wind on the port tack under short sails two whaling bark in sight. Lat 32.18 N. Long 50.17 1/2 W and

June Tuesday 19 - 1906 This day began with good weather clear sky and smooth sea with a light NW wind in the afternoon began quite thick and light rain and calm no wind saw steering by the wind at evening shorting down standing under short
Sail so end

June Wednesday 20 - 1906 This day began good weather quite smoky in the morning clear off after with a good breeze from the NW steering by the wind with all sails out. at 11.40 a.m. rise a school of whales low down chace them no chance to get fast got on board at 3 p.m. and stand along by the wind on the port tack. at 7 p.m. shorting down standing long on the starboard tack under low sails

Lat 31.38 W Long 48.66 1/2 W and so end

June Thursday 21 - 1906 This day began with smoky and thick weather all day very light NW wind steering by the wind on the port until noon wear round on the starboard tack all sail out at evening shorting down standing the same
Lat 31.40 W Long 49.08 W and so end

June Friday 22 1906 This day began with calm weather and smoky at 9 a.m. light breeze spring up from the SW steering by the wind at 7 p.m. shorting down standing on the starboard tack under low sails
Lat 31.48 W. Long 49.28 W and so end

June Saturday 23 1906 This day began with fine weather clear sky and smooth sea with a SW wind steering by the wind on the port tack all sails out at 7 p.m. shorting down standing a long on the same tack one whaling bark in sight Lat 32.04 W Long 49.38 W so end

June Sunday 24 1906 This day began with fine weather clear sky and smooth sea with a light SW breeze standing on the port tack by the wind until noon go round on the starboard until evening shorting down and wear round on the port tack etc calm no wind Grey Hound in sight
Lat 32.28 N Long 49.36 W so end