

Aug Friday 24. 1906 This day began with calm weather clear and smooth seas and during the day a light S. breeze spring up and steering E with all sails out in the evening the said coast. Lat 34.34 N Lon 39.14 W so end

Aug Saturday 25. 1906 This day began with good weather clear and moderate seas with a fine SW breeze steering E with all sails out in the evening steering the same coast the Schooner Nickerson in sight Lat 35.30 N Lon 36.37 W so end

Aug Sunday 26. 1906 This day began with hazy and smoky weather with a strong SW wind steering E all light sails in in the evening the same course Schooner Nickerson in sight in Lat 36.28 N Long 33.20 E W and so end

Aug Monday 27. 1906 This day began with smoky and squally weather with a SW wind steering E under topsails in the afternoon take in the upertopsails and steer NW under short sails at 7 p.m. rain squall and very light wind Lat 36.30 N Lon 31.25 W and so end

Aug Tuesday 28. 1906 This day began with smoky weather with a strong SW wind steering by the wind on the port tack under short sails in the evening very moderate light wind set sails and standing on the same tack by the wind Lat 37.00 N Lon 29.14 W and so end

Aug Wednesday 29. 1906 This day began with hazy weather heavy rain squall all day dark clouds with a strong NE wind standing on the starboard tack with all the square sails in and in the afternoon strike the fore and main & gallant yards and at 7.30^{p.m.} began to clear up and the wind changed to the NW and good weather so end

Aug Thursday 30. 1906 This day began with squally and light rain. hazy seas and a strong NW and during the day clear up and good weather. Set the fore and main low topsails in the afternoon began to get squally and strong breeze from the NE take in the fore topsail standing on the starboard tack under short sails the Schooner Nickerson in sight and so end

Aug Friday 31. 1906 This day began with good weather clear sky with a fine N breeze steering by the wind all sails out put up the main gallant yard. Fayal in sight in the evening take in the light sails and standing along on the port tack by the wind under the lee of Pico good weather and so end

Sept Saturday 1. 1906 This day began with fine weather clear sky smooth seas with an ENE breeze and beating up toward the land with all sails out in the evening still under the lee of Fayal. good weather and so end.

Sept Sunday 2. 1906 This day began with calm weather clear sky drifting backward and forward in the afternoon a light SW breeze spring up and got in at 5 p.m. and lay to the buoy for the coming day. and so end.

Sept Monday 3 1906 This day in port fine weather in the morning bring her up to an anchor ground and make her fast and after clean her out side and send up the fore gallant yard and the starboard watch go on shore and so end