

- Sept Friday 21st 1906 This day in port good weather nothing done today receiving potatoes in the evening the Starboard watch go on shore and so end
- Sept Saturday 22nd 1906 This day began with good weather in port done nothing today in the evening the port watch go on shore and so end
- Sept Sunday 23rd 1906 This day began with good weather still in port nothing done today in the evening the Starboard watch go on shore and so end
- Sept Monday 24th 1906 This day began with clear weather with a very light easterly sail out at noon in the afternoon oil calm standing between Pico and Fayal during the night. one man stow away so end
- Sept Tuesday 25th 1906 This day began with calm weather all day under the of Fayal in the evening a light breeze spring up from the NE steering south all sail out so end
- Sept Wednesday 26th 1906 This day began with fine weather with a light N breeze steering SSW at 6.30 a.m. rise a school of whales low down the three boats got fast at 9.20 got alongside at 1 p.m. with 6 small whales the S.B. one L.B. three and the W.B. two began to cut in at 3 p.m. and cut in three at sunset standing on the Starboard Tack under short sails with three whales alongside so end
- Sept Thursday 27th 1906 This day began good weather with a very light NW wind began to cut in at 6 a.m. finish at 9.30 start to build at 1 o'clock so end

- Sept Friday 28th 1906 This day began with squally weather and rain until noon. with a N breeze standing on the Starboard Tack under short sails. building and pumping out water and so end
- Sept Saturday 29th 1906 This day began with squally weather with a strong NE wind steering SSW under topsails until in the afternoon rain squall and ruff seas and strong SE wind take in all the square sails and wear round standing on the Starboard Tack under short sails. finish build at 1.2.02 and finish stow down in the afternoon. and so end
- Sept Sunday 30th 1906 This day began bad weather with heavy seas running and strong SE wind with light rain squall standing on the Starboard Tack under short sail. carry away one barrer from the Starboard boat in the morning began to break up and the wind change to the W and moderate down. Set the low topsail and foresail. steering S. so end
- Oct Monday 1st 1906 This day began with squally weather and rugged seas with a strong W.S.W wind until noon it clear up standing on the port tack steering by the wind under short sail. in the afternoon go round on the Starboard Tack set the fore and main support sails at evening the weather moderate down a little Lat 35.55 N Long 29.05 W and so end
- Oct Tuesday 2nd 1906 This day began squally weather rugged seas rain squall in the morning and strong SW wind all day. standing on the Starboard Tack under short sails. one steamer in sight in the evening the weather just the same way and so end