

Jan Tuesday 1st 1907 This day began with good weather with little rugged seas with a S E wind steering off SW early in the morning saw the Greyhound she saw whales run towards her low down at 10 a.m. the W.B. boat got fast and part the line she got fast again got alongside at 11.30 a.m. take in the topsail start to cut in at 1.40 p.m. cut in the body and leave the head alongsid. Standing on the starboard tack. rugged seas the same so end

Jan Wednesday 2nd 1907 This day began with strong SE breeze moderate seas start to take in the head in the morning finish at noon. and after brace up the yard standing on the starboard tack. commence to hoist in the afternoon. in the evening good weather so end

Jan Thursday 3rd 1907 This day began with good weather very light SE wind smooth seas and at 10 a.m. strong breeze and rugged seas. rise a school of whales early in the morning go in fast did not low down still boiling and began to stow down oil. in the evening the wind moderate down a little. standing on the port tack under short sails. Sch. - Nickerson in sight. and one bark Lat 34.27 S Long 49.07 W. and so end

Jan Friday 4th 1907 This day began with strong SW breeze and rugged seas. standing on the port tack under short sails. finish hoist at 5 a.m. the Captain putting up casks. in the evening still rugged and strong wind Nickerson in sight. Lat 35.03 S Long 48.25 W so end

Jan Saturday 5 1907 This day began with good weather clear little rugged seas with

S wind steering NW under short sails. finish stow down oil. in the evening stand on the port tack by the wind so remaine with rugged seas. Lat 34.39 S Long 48.42 W so end

Jan Sunday 6th 1907 This day began with good weather clear sky and smooth sea with a fresh S E wind rising to the NW part of the day and after bring her up on the starboard tack by the wind all sails out. in the evening shorten down ware round on the port tack. standing by the wind so remaine good weather. Nickerson in sight. Lat 34.07 S. Long 49.13 W and so end

Jan Monday 7th 1907 This day began with good weather clear sky with SE wind standing on the port tack untill noon. go round on the starboard tack by the wind all topsail out in the evening shorting down and stand on the same tack. so remaine good weather Lat 34.21 S Long 49.10 W. end so end

Jan Tuesday 8th 1907 This day began with good weather with SE wind untill noon and after began to get squally in the and the wind change to SW. and at 5 p.m. died out calm saw at 6.30 p.m. rise whales to late to low down. Sch. - Nickerson in sight chase them also. at 7 p.m. shorting down standing on the port tack. so remaine good weather but calm. and so end

Jan Wednesday 9th 1907 This day began with rugged weather smoky and strong SE wind standing on the port tack under short sails. in the evening still rugged and strong breeze. Sch. Nickerson and Greyhound in sight. Lat 34.10 S. Long 48.31 W. and so end