

Feb Sunday 3-1907 This day began with thick and heavy dark cloud and rain with a light SW wind which soon die out at noon clear of a SE wind spring up steering NE. all sails out. at 6 p.m. strong breeze take in all the light sail. began to get squally still steering the same course. at 7.30 p.m. the weather commence to lighting up a little. Lat 27.35 S Long 43.32 W and so end

Feb Monday 4-1907 This day began with squally weather and rugged seas with light SE wind steering NE all sails out. at 10 a.m. the wind die out calm and clear up. in the afternoon a light ear began to spring from the S. in the evening clear weather no wind. Lat 25.40 S. Long 42.22 W and so end

Feb Tuesday 5-1907 This day began with good weather clear and smooth seas with a very light ear from the NW steering by the wind on the port tack. during the day die out in the afternoon a light E breeze spring up. standing on the starboard tack by the wind. in the evening still remain good weather. three steamer in sight. so end.

Feb Wednesday 6-1907 This day began with smoky and squally weather with rain showers with and easterly wind. during the day wind change to N blown strong standing on the port tack all light sails in. in the evening still squally and ruff seas strong wind. one bark and two steamer in sight. and so end.

Feb Thursday 7-1907 This day began with rugged weather with strong N wind standing on the port tack steering by the wind under low sails. in the afternoon the wind and seas moderate down some. set the uper top sails. in the evening not much wind. rugged seas on the same tack. Lat 25.28 S Long 40.07 W and so end

Feb Friday 8-1907 This day began with rugged seas and strong N wind all day steering by the wind on the port tack in the afternoon the seas moderate down a little. clear sky. in the evening still clear. and good weather. Lat 25.26 S Long 37.55 W and so end

Feb Saturday 9-1907 This day began with fine weather clear sky and moderate seas with N wind steering by the wind on the port tack all sails on. in the evening still remain good weather. Lat 25.30 S. Long 35.59 W. so end

Feb Sunday 10-1907 This day began with fine weather clear sky and smooth seas with N breeze. steering by the wind all sails out. in the evening light wind still remain good weather. Lat 25.33 S. Long 34.44 W. so end

Feb Monday 11-1907 This day began with fine weather clear sky and smooth seas with a light N breeze steering by the wind all sails out. at noon the breeze change to NE. standing on the starboard tack by the wind. the captain repairing the T.B. in the evening still good weather one bark in sight. Lat 25.40 S. Long 32.57 W. so end

Feb Tuesday 12-1907 This day began with fine weather clear and smooth with a NE wind standing on the starboard tack until noon tack round standing on the port. by the wind