

in the evening it breeze up moderate seas
Lat 37-00 W Long 72-36 W and so end

May Friday 10th 1907 This day began with good weather smooth seas with light NE breeze standing on the port tack all sails out in the middle part of the day die out calm in the afternoon light SW breeze standing on the starboard tack steering by the wind in the evening still remaine good weather. Lat 37-55 N Long 72-25 W so end

May Saturday 11th 1907 This day began with rugged weather with strong N. wind and rain in the morning. Standing on the port tack under short sails. in the evening still rugged seas and strong wind one Sch in sight. Lat 38-00 N Long 73-06 W so end

May Sunday 12th 1907. This day began with moderate weather with a NE wind standing on the starboard tack all sails out. Three Sch-- in sight gam the Nickerson. in the afternoon fine weather clear and smooth seas. in evening shorting down sails. and standing along on the same tack by the wind. Lat 37-52 N Long 72-52 W. and so end

May Monday 13th 1907 This day began with fine weather with a light E wind standing on the port tack. at 5:30 a.m. rise a school of whales. low down at 5:45 a.m. the three boats got fast. got along side at 7:50 take in sails and after put up the cutting gaire. start to cut in at 9 a.m. finish at 1 p.m. began to build at 4 p.m. in the evening standing on the starboard tack good weather Nickerson in sight. so end

May Tuesday 14th 1907. This day began with calm weather and smooth seas standing on the port tack under short sails. boiling rise whales from the Nickerson in the morning low down at 6 a.m. chase them no chance to get fast one of the Nickerson boat got one. mated with us in the evening still boiling. light SE breeze fine weather. Lat 38-05 N. Long 72-47 W at noon low down after black fish got 6 lost two. so end

May Wednesday 15th 1907 This day began with good weather standing on the port tack the light SE wind steering NW. gam the Nickerson she rise a shoals of whales at 3:30 p.m. capt Gombs low down from her. he got and one of her the other boat got one. low down from here at 4 p.m. start to chase them the W.B. got one. no chance for the others to get fast got along side at sunset with one whale. take in the light sails. standing on the starboard tack good weather finish build at 2 a.m. began to stow down oil. saw one three mated the Frederick

May Thursday 16th 1907 This day began with light S breeze rugged seas standing on the starboard tack. start to cut in at 6 a.m. finish at 8 start to build soon after. brace up on the same tack untill afternoon wear round on the port tack by the wind under topsails finish build at 10 p.m. so remaine good weather. Sch-- Nickerson in sight seen. Lat 38-15 N. Long 73-06 W. and so end

May Friday 17th 1907 This day began with equally weather and light rain. calm and moderate seas working down oil and also finish stow down