

in the evening a steamer spake us still remaine on the port tack Lat 38 25 N. Long 69-51 W and so end

May Saturday 25th 1907 This day began with a strong N wind Rugged Seas. Standing on the starboard tack under all topsail during the day it began to calm down finish hoist and also finish stow down. in the evening good weather standing on the port tack. Steering SW by S Lat 39-08 N. Long 70-45 W. and so end

May Sunday 26th 1907 This day began with squally weather rugged seas with a strong south east wind all standing on the port tack by the wind and after wear round on the starboard tack under short sails at 12.30 p.m. rise a schools of whales of dark low down at 1 p.m. after them no chance. the weather began to bad the boat got alongside at 2.30 p.m. in the evening still squally and ruff so remaine on the same tack.
end

May Monday 27th 1907 This day began with squally weather and rain in the morning with a strong SW breeze. moderate sea. standing on the starboard tack under short sails untill noon wear round on the port tack. in the evening still remaine squally with light wind still on the port tack. two sch. in sight So end

May Tuesday 28th 1907. This day began with squally weather and rain in the morning.

Rugged Seas with strong NW wind standing on the starboard tack under short sails. and during the day it clear off. Still rugged seas and strong wind wear round on the port tack at noon. in the evening still remaine the same
Lat 38-10 N. Long 70-57 W. and so end

May Wednesday 29 - 1907 This day began with rugged sea. with strong NW wind in the early part of the morning and during the day it smoo-down a little standing on the port tack under low sails. The Captain setting up castles in the evening it began to get ruff again one steamer in sight. and so remaine squally weather strong breeze and ruff seas Lat 38-05 N. Long 70-36 W. and so end

May Thursday 30 - 1907. This day began with clear weather with a strong N wind moderate seas standing on the starboard tack under topsails by the wind saw whales at 6 a.m. on our lee go in fast did not low down. and after wear round on the port tack standing by the wind in the evening rugged seas and strong breeze Lat 38-10 N. Long 70-29 W. and so end

May Friday 31 - 1907. This day began with good weather little rugged with a W wind standing on the starboard tack. in the morning wear round on the port tack under short sails in the afternoon fine weather set all sails wear round on the starboard steering NW by W. so remaine clear weather
Lat 37-54 N. Long 69-58 W and so end

June Saturday 1st 1907. This day began with fine weather clear and smoo seas with a NE breeze