

June Friday 14th - 1907 this day began with thick black clouds all day and rain showers. moderate seas with a light S breeze. Standing on the Starboard tack under low sails. in the evening still thick. and so remaine on the Starboard tack under short sails and so end

June Saturday 15th - 1907 this day began with thick fog in the morning. at 7 a.m. it clear off. rise one whale of deck and soon after it came thick again at 10 a.m. it clear off fine weather after all day we have seen no more of the whale. Standing on the Starboard tack all sails out. a light SW breeze. in the evening shorting down and wear round on the port tack by the wind one Sch. in sight. Lat 38-40 N. Lon 71-08 W. So end

June Sunday 16th - 1907 this day began with good weather. smooed seas with a light N breeze and during the day it became smookey. Standing on the port tack all sails out at noon on the Starboard tack. in the afternoon calm. at sunset take in the light sails. so remaine on the same tack. Lat 38-30 W. Long 71-01 W. and so end

June Monday 17th - 1907. this day began with calm weather. all day smooed. seas and smookey all sails out. working on the maine putting on rattling. in the evening still calm all light sails in. Lat 38-20 N. Long 71-04 W. and so end

June Tuesday 18th - 1907 this day began with calm the first part of the morning at 7 a.m. a light SW breeze spring. at noon die out calm again. at 2 p.m. spring up from SE. smookey and smooed seas. Standing on the port tack all sails out. at 5 p.m. speak a three masted schooner name Republic. in the evening die out calm and began to get squally and rigged seas. wear round on the Starboard tack shorting down sails and so remaine. Lat 38-02 N. Lon 71-05 W. So end

June Wednesday 19th - 1907 this day began with good weather but calm at 8 a.m. light S breeze. Standing on the port tack steering by the wind all sails out light rain at noon and quite thick. in the evening still remaine the same shorting down sails and standing on the same tack. and so end

June Thursday 20th - 1907 this day began with smookey weather with a SW. wind moderate seas. Standing on the port tack untill noon wear round the Starboard tack all sails out. in the evening shorting down and so remaine on the same tack under short sails good weather. Lat 38-35 N. Lon 71-49 W. So end

June Friday 21st - 1907 this day began with smookey weather. smooed seas with a SW wind. Standing on the Starboard tack steering by the wind. all sails out in the evening wear round on the port tack shorting down sails. and so remaine good weather and very light wind. Lat 38-30 N. Long 71-57 W. and so end

June Saturday 22nd - 1907 this day began with