

New Bedford January 9. 1849
I Lyman Bartlett of the City of New Bedford in the County of Bristol and Commonwealth of Massachusetts do hereby certify on oath that I have no other insurance on my house which was damaged by fire on the night of the 31. Decr last, than that by the Protection Insurance Company at Hartford per policy No 1446, that the said house was occupied as a dwelling exclusively, and that I have no knowledge in what manner the fire originated. (Signed) Lyman Bartlett.

City of New Bedford

On this ninth day of January in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and forty nine, before me William H. Taylor a Justice Public, duly commissioned and sworn, residing in the City of New Bedford aforesaid, personally appeared Lyman Bartlett of said city and declared on oath that the foregoing statement by him subscribed is just and true.

I have having been present during the burning of the house therein described, and moved inquiring into the cause of the fire I do verily believe that it was purely accidental and that the said Lyman Bartlett hath really and by misfortune and without fraud or evil practice sustained loss and damage thereby to the amount of the insured sum insured. (Per $4451.)

I do testify whereof I have knowledge but my house and affairs are not affected the day & year aforesaid.

New Bedford January 9. 1849
I Isaac D. Norton of Fairhaven in the County of Bristol and Commonwealth of Massachusetts do hereby certify on oath that I have no other insurance on my building and the tools and stock contained therein which were damaged by fire on the night of the 31. Decr last, than that by the Providence Washington Insurance Company per Policy No 9270, that the said building was occu-pied exclusively by myself as a boatbuilding shop and that according to my best knowledge and belief fire was communicated to the premises through the conflagration of a neighboring building (Signed) Isaac D Norton.
