Be it remembered that on the 22 day of March in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and fifty nine, before me William H. Taylor a Notary Public duly commissioned and now residing in the City of New Bedford aforesaid personally appeared James A. Bourdage master of Brig George Washington of Perry of the burden of One hundred fifty eight tons or thereabouts, now lying in the harbor of New Bedford, and states that he sailed from Barcelona in the Island of Cuba on the 4 day of March instant in said Brig laden with a cargo of Molasses, and that he arrived at this Port on the morning of the 21st Instant, having experienced heavy and tempestuous weather on the passage, and now suffering loss and damage desires to note his protest, against the winds waves, storms, currents and all other causes whereby the said Brig hath hath suffered loss or damage in her hull, tackle, apparel, furniture or cargo during said passage from Barcelona aforesaid to this port, with liberty to extend the same as pleasure.
