

commissioned and from, residing in the City of New Bedford aforesaid, personally appeared James Jarvis master of the Brig Dragoon of Boston of the burthen of about two hundred and thirty two tons, now lying in the harbor of New Bedford and stated that he sailed for the Port of New York on the 21st day of the present month in the said Brig laden with a cargo of Staves and bound for Vigo, and that on the 25th day of the present month he discovered that the said Brig had struck a leak, and fearing loss and damage demanded to make his protest against the coasts, waves and all other causes whatever whereby the said Brig had sustained injury loss or damage in her hull, tackle, apparel or cargo since her departure from the aforesaid Port of New York with liberty to extend the same at pleasure.
