Be it remembered that on this 21st day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty one before me William H. Taylor a Notary Public duly commissioned and sworn residing in the City of New Bedford aforesaid, personally appeared John S.
Robinson master of the Brig Noble of Boston and states that he sailed in said Brig from the Port of Bristol on the 21st day of November last, having on board a cargo consisting of Whalebone, Ecodh Skins and other Merchandise, bound for New Bedford aforesaid, and having encountered heavy and tempestuous weather on the passage whereby he apprehends that the said Brig may have suffered loss or damage, in her hull tackle apparel or cargo, desires to note his protest against the winds, waves storms, tempests, and all other causes whereby the said Brig may have suffered loss or damage as aforesaid, with liberty to extend the same at pleasure.

Witness my hand and seal this 21st day of March 1851.
