

At Havana (Island of Cuba)

Monday Feb^y 13th 1832. Fair & comfortable weather. The Enterprise landing Hoops at the West Regt. At Mrs Perry's.
Tuesday Feb^y 14th. Fair pleasant weather and light breeze during the day. At 8 A.M. went on board the Enterprise & breakfasted.
Dined on board the Mechanic. Capt Gray he having returned from the Hospital much better the not entirely recovered.
Returned at night to Mrs Perry's at the East Regt.
Wednesday Feb^y 15th Strong breeze and pleasant weather.
At Mrs Perry's and visiting in the Regts.
Thursday Feb^y 16th Strong breeze and pleasant weather.
At 7 A.M. Capt Boston came ashore and at 8 A.M.
went on board with him and breakfasted. The Brig discharged and hold cleared out and cleansed. At night went on shore to my lodgings at Mr Perry's.
Friday Feb^y 17th Fresh breeze and pleasant weather.
Spent 1 til 5 P.M. on board the Enterprise writing letters &c. At night on shore at my lodgings.
Saturday Feb^y 18th First part the day calm and no sea breeze til 1 P.M. which makes it hot & uncomfortable.
Sunday Feb^y 19th A very hot day. Dined & supped with Capt Gray. Sailed Briggs Barge & came for Providence and then for Portland. Came on shore to my lodgings at night. Windy Southerly. Put a letter for my father on P.B. Fare.
Monday Feb^y 20th Warm weather and Southerly breeze.
At Sundown came on heavy squalls with thunder & lightning and deluging rain that continued thro' the night.
Tuesday Feb^y 21st Rain at intervals during this day and cloudy muggy weather. Breakfasted on board the Enterprise.
Wednesday Feb^y 22^d Cloudy with squalls of rain during the day. The Brig Mary Ann Capt Noyes arrived from New Orleans. At Mrs Perry's all day, the weather & mud in the Streets of the Regt, making it too disagreeable to stir out. Amused myself in reading &c.
This is the Birth-day of Washington being the hundred Years since this Son of Freedom was sent to enlighten a new world.

At Havana (Island of Cuba?)

Thursday February 23rd 1832. Pleasant weather. Went to Havana City. Called on board the Mary Ann at my sister's and at Mr Wade's counting room. Returned at 4 P.M.
Friday Feb 24th Pleasant weather. At 10 A.M. went to the Havana. Called on Mr Wade and my sister Sarah.
Saturday Feb 25th Fine pleasant weather. The Enterprise Capt Brown finished loading Molasses for Providence.
Sunday Feb 26th Fine pleasant weather. At my boarding house all day. Brig Genl. Capt. Maybury and Genl. Augustus Monday Feb 27th Fair weather. In the morning had my things landed from the Enterprise, and brought over to my boarding place at the East Reglay. Afternoon & Evening engaged in writing letters home. Retired at Midnight after finishing 4, one to my hon^d father, one to my sister Mat one to F.B. one to J.B.W. and to B.W.D. & one to J.B.B. 10. to go by the Enterprise. Brig Sampson, Purkis arrived this day.
Tuesday Feb 28th Fair weather. At daylight went on board the Enterprise who was getting under weigh. Delivered my letters and wrote down as far as the Outer Bay in the Brig, Capt. Norris with his boat and two hands from the Mary Ann also having come to assist. Captains Purkis and Maybury also came on board off the quay. At 7 A.M. came on board Capt Purkis with Capt. Norris & Maybury & breakfasted. Got a pair of Shoes sent me by my father and some newspapers. Returned with him on board the Mary Ann at the West Reglay at 10 A.M. & soon after went on Shore. Fine Southerly breeze the rest of the day.
Wednesday Feb 29th Fair pleasant weather & Southerly windy. At my boarding house & elsewhere variously employed.
Thursday March 1st Fair weather. At 9 A.M. Mr Wade came to the Reglay and brought me a letter from my father received from Sampson dated the 27th A.M. Upon consultation with him think I shall leave this shortly for New Orleans.
Friday March 2nd Fair weather. In the morning went on board Capt Norris and breakfasted. At Mrs Perry's room off the day.