

From New-Orleans for Providence R.I.

At 11 A.M. hoisted up and made all sail and started up the River with a light increasing breeze from the S.W. At 2 P.M. grounded off Paimham, but the tide rising at 3 P.M. got off and at 4 P.M. passed into the Crook and at Providence was made fast to the Wharf. So Ends.

Remained in Providence until I commenced the Journal on the next page.

Journal commencing at Providence December 13th 1832 for a Whaling Voyage from New Bedford

At 10 A.M. took passage on board Steamer King Philip for Fall River accompanied by my honourable & beloved Mother and Brother Lewis. At 5 P.M. first Meridian arrived there. Dined at Blakey's and immediately after proceeded in the Stage for New Bedford. One passenger in the Stage besides my Mother & Brother Mr. J. H. Bofford who was lately engaged in the Jewellery business in Providence. Arrived at my Brother John Holley's residence at 5 P.M. and were very cordially welcomed. The weather has been rather cool but not more than ought to be expected at this Season of the Year.

Friday December 14th 1832. Cool and pleasant weather. Called in the morning with my Brother J. H. on Mr. Parker's and went on board the Ship George lying at the wharf, where I was made acquainted with Captain Webb, her intended Commander.

Saturday December 15th Stormy weather. Mr. & Mrs. Parker Mr. & Mrs. Allen Mr. & Mrs. H. G. Colby Mrs. Hinckley & Mr. Joshua Richmond dined tea & I passed the evening at my brother's. Enjoyed myself very agreeably.

Sunday December 16th Cloudy and rain at night. Attended at the Rev. Mr. Dewey's Church. Morning. Afternoon. Dined and tea'd at Mr. Wm. H. Allen's with my Mother & Brother Lewis & J. H. & wife and Mr. J. Richmond.

Monday December 17th Cloudy with rain. At home at my brother's most of the day. Visited the Ship in the morning.

Tuesday December 18th Passed my time partly at home & my brother's office at Mr. Parker's. Compting Room and on board the Ship a few moments.

Wednesday December 19th Fair weather. Perused all my little newspaper in the course of the day and at 4 P.M. got my things on board the Ship George.
