

Journal from Cape Horn towards Stirlington

H	K	F	COURSES.	WINDS.	Therm.		Barom.	REMARKS.
					Air.	Wat.
								Wednesday March 7 th 18
1								Light air from E. N. E. hauled N. by
2								Boat and for Port of Spain by 1 P. M.
3								began to rain 2 P. M. while the
4								land at port of Spain. Ray went in
5								and anchored. Wind E. blowing
6								Strong. Bo 29, 20
7
8
9
10
11
12
1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10
11
12

[illegible][illegible][illegible]

Journal from Cape Horn towards Stonington

H	K	F	COURSES.	WINDS.	Therm. Br. Vol.	Barom.	REMARKS.
							Monday March 6 th 18
1							Took the mud der on deck and found
2							but one spittle on it was heat on
3							the mud der worked on the mud der
4							all the afternoon and got it ready
5							to ship again wind S.W. E. 4. 11. 12
6							hung the mud der and sawg heel
7							anchor the stock being gone and
8							up to Stanley looking 400 strokes
9							per hour
10
11
12
1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10
11
12

[illegible]

H	K	F	COURSES.	WINDS.	Therm.		Barom.	REMARKS.
					Air.	Wat.
								18 Tues day March 20
1								Wind S.W. light and calm then
2								hauled round to N and cloudy
3								the fore part of the day hauled
4								along side the hulk until 10 breaking
5								out the hold and putting the
6								stuff aboard the hulk preparing
7								for heaving down No 2 & 20
8
9
10
11
12
1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10
11
12

[illegible]