

| South day 1803 |    | From & on a sailing voyage in the 3   |                               |
|----------------|----|---------------------------------------|-------------------------------|
| 4              | 16 | W. Course                             | Monday July 10 th  |
| 2              | 2  | " at 8 P.M.                           | S. E.                         |
| 4              | 2  | "                                     | S. S. W.                      |
| 6              | 2  | "                                     | "                             |
| 8              | 2  | "                                     | "                             |
| 10             | 3  | "                                     | "                             |
| 12             | 3  | "                                     | "                             |
| 2              | 3  | "                                     | S. E. S. S. E.                |
| 4              | 3  | "                                     | "                             |
| 6              | 3  | "                                     | "                             |
| 8              | 3  | "                                     | "                             |
| 10             | 3  | "                                     | "                             |
| 12             | 3  | "                                     | "                             |
| 7              |    | at 11 P.M. Lay 66                     |                               |
|                |    | Ward. and hazy - Capt. Barney         |                               |
|                |    | On board of the Lyon -                |                               |
|                |    | Lat off 12° 23'                       |                               |
|                |    | Longt aut 77° 20'                     |                               |
| 4              | 16 | W. Course                             | Monday July 11 th  |
| 2              | 2  | "                                     | "                             |
| 4              | 2  | "                                     | "                             |
| 6              | 2  | "                                     | "                             |
| 8              | 2  | "                                     | "                             |
| 10             | 3  | "                                     | "                             |
| 12             | 3  | "                                     | "                             |
| 2              | 3  | "                                     | "                             |
| 4              | 3  | "                                     | "                             |
| 6              | 3  | "                                     | "                             |
| 8              | 3  | "                                     | "                             |
| 10             | 3  | "                                     | "                             |
| 12             | 3  | "                                     | "                             |
| 7              |    | at 11 P.M. Lay 64                     |                               |
|                |    | Ward. and hazy - at 4 P.M.            |                               |
|                |    | Tackled to the southward - the Island |                               |
|                |    | of St. Lawrence bearing 88° 15' S.    |                               |
|                |    | 6 miles 12 leagues - at sun set       |                               |
|                |    | Parted with the Ship Lyon -           |                               |
|                |    | The Middle and latter part            |                               |
|                |    | Strong breeze & cloudy - emp.         |                               |
|                |    | Painting 16 - Lat off 13° 4'          |                               |
|                |    | Longt aut 78° 10'                     |                               |
| 4              | 16 | W. Course                             | Tuesday July 12 th |
| 2              | 4  | "                                     | "                             |
| 4              | 4  | "                                     | "                             |
| 6              | 4  | "                                     | "                             |
| 8              | 4  | "                                     | "                             |
| 10             | 4  | "                                     | "                             |
| 12             | 4  | "                                     | "                             |
| 2              | 4  | "                                     | "                             |
| 4              | 4  | "                                     | "                             |
| 6              | 4  | "                                     | "                             |
| 8              | 4  | "                                     | "                             |
| 10             | 4  | "                                     | "                             |
| 12             | 4  | "                                     | "                             |
| 7              |    | at 11 P.M. Lay 96 Miles               |                               |
|                |    | Strong breezes and hazy - emp.        |                               |
|                |    | as before - single reef each          |                               |
|                |    | Top sail -                            |                               |
|                |    | The Middle part strong                |                               |
|                |    | Winds - How still -                   |                               |
|                |    | Ends strong breezes & cloudy -        |                               |
|                |    | Lat off 14° 24'                       |                               |
|                |    | Longt aut 79° 12' 11"                 |                               |