

Journal of the Voyage of the Ship Griffin ^{James W. Blunt}

H	M	Course	Wind	Monday Sept. 19th
1	4	N. by E.	E. by N.	Moderate breeze & clear
2	4			Emp. as before -
3	4			Middle part steady
4	4			Breeze and hazy -
5	4			End light wind and
6	4			Clear - am. P. on clouds
7	4			Sabb. - Lat obs. 10. 3
8	4			Lat. 2 E Long obs. 134. 10
9	4
10	4
11	4
12	4

Ship. P. Lay 103 Miles

H	M	Course	Wind	Tuesday Sept. 20th
1	4	N. by E.	E. by N.	Begins with steady
2	4			Breeze & clear -
3	4			Emp. on the sails
4	4			Moderate and clear -
5	4			all sail set -
6	4			The latter part steady
7	4			Breeze & flying clouds
8	4			Emp. as before -
9	4
10	4
11	4
12	4

Ship. P. Lay 123 Miles
 Latitude 20 Long obs. 135. 50

From Macao Towards Canton in China 1803

H	M	Course	Wind	Wednesday Sept. 21st
1	6	N. by E.	E. by N.	Moderate breeze & clear
2	6			Emp. on ship duty
3	6			Middle part light
4	6			Breeze & cloudy -
5	6			Emp. binding cables and
6	6			Landery Sails -
7	6			at 11 AM by obs. Sun & Moon
8	6			Long obs. 137. 57. 20
9	6			at Noon Made the land
10	6			Passing from N. by S. to E. by S.
11	6			Lat obs. 9. 54
12	6

H	M	Course	Wind	Thursday Sept. 22nd
1	6			Strong breeze at sunset
2	6			The passage between
3	6			The Island of Formosa
4	6			and Chitahoe more West
5	6			at 10 PM the North end of
6	6			Formosa bore a N. W.
7	6			toon in sail and lay by
8	6			under Chitahoe - at 7 AM
9	6			stood off Resolution Bay
10	6			The wind came off with
11	6			heavy gusts would not get
12	6			into the Bay - several of The Natives came of in their canoes - and strong Breeze and squally -