

Journal of the Barque Hector

October 20 1845 Friday morning commenced with light breeze from the land and we were employed hauling wood and getting water the Captain is a shore trading for potatoes

October 21 Saturday morning fair and pleasant we are busy storing down water and getting ready for sea

October 22 Sunday morning fair and pleasant we are all ready for sea the Captain wants on board of the whole ship's triton of warren

October 23 Monday morning fair and pleasant with a light breeze we have up the anchor and pitch to sea bound on the line in the afternoon a canoe came of shore some potatoes and then Captain Cook to them its its way morning we are still close in to the land with a light breeze

October 24 Tuesday morning fair and pleasant with a light breeze from the N.E. steering for Dudge in the afternoon the weather calm and pleasant we are in sight of Angkor

October 25 Wednesday morning fair pleasant with a light breeze from the Western steering E. we are busy employed setting up the rigging

October 26 Thursday morning fair and pleasant with a light breeze from the Southern steering close in to the the pilot came of and staid awhile and then went on shore again

October 27 Friday morning fair and pleasant with a light breeze from the Southern steering down the coast

Journal of the Barque Hector

October 28 1845 Saturday morning fair and pleasant with a light breeze from the Northern steering along the coast the Captain has gone on shore to trade with the natives in the afternoon the Captain came on board and brought of some potatoes and water melons to me squared away the yards bound on the line

October 29 Sunday morning fair and pleasant with a fine breeze from the Eastern steering N.E. in the afternoon the weather still fine and pleasant with a light breeze

October 30 Monday morning fair and pleasant with a strong breeze from the Eastern steering N.E. in the afternoon we sight the top of the

October 31 Tuesday morning commences with a strong breeze from the Eastern steering N.E. with a heavy swell & running

Nov 1 1845 Monday morning commences with a gale off wind of from the Eastern steering S.E. with single reefed top sails with a heavy sea and Latitude 12-55 N.

Nov 2 1845 Thursday morning commences with a gale of wind from the N.E. steering S.E. in the afternoon the wind fell some we shook our reef out of the main top sail sail but a strong gale Latitude 11-44 N.

Nov 3 1845 Friday morning commences with a gale of wind from the N.E. accompanied with rain steering N.E. Latitude 9-10 N.

Nov 4 1845 Saturday morning commences with a strong breeze from the N.E. steering N.E. accompanied with rain Latitude 8-22 N.

Nov 5 1845 Sunday morning commences with a strong breeze from the Eastern steering N.E. accompanied with squalls of rain