

Passage from Sandwich Islands to Warren P.I.
February 9th 1845 Sunday morning commences with a light breeze from the Eastward Steering N by E. with all sail with two sail in sight in the afternoon the wind began to blow from the N.E. Steering N.W. & W.

Latitude by DR 18 = 29 - S.

Longitude by DR 34 = 32 W.

10th Monday morning fair and pleasant with strong breeze from the N.E. Steering N.W. & W. with all sail and a sail in sight in the afternoon the weather fine and pleasant with light breeze from N.E.

Latitude by DR 17 = 29 - S DR 17 = 26 S.

Longitude by DR 34 = 28 W.

11th Tuesday morning fair and pleasant with light breeze from the N.E. Steering N.W. we unlashed the foremast and bent another in the afternoon all hands employed breaking out the main hatch for water and provisions and stowed down 16 Barrels of oil and we put some water down the foremast and finished at 6 pm and swept up the decks with a sail in sight

Latitude by DR 17 = 26 DR 17 = 10 S.

Longitude by DR 34 = 44 = 8 W.

12th Wednesday morning fair and pleasant with light breeze from the Eastward Steering N.W. with all sail we began fitting rigging in the afternoon the weather still pleasant with nothing in sight

Latitude by DR 15 = 55 S DR 15 = 57 S

Longitude by DR 35 = 25 W.

13th Thursday morning fair and pleasant with light breeze from the N.E. Steering on the main with all sail and a sail in sight Steaming the same way we are in the afternoon the weather still the same we unlashed the foremast and bent another and cut the all on up for patches at 4 pm we raised a sail standing to the eastward

Latitude by DR 15 = 30 S DR 15 = 34 S

Longitude by DR 35 = 24 W.

Passage from Sandwich Islands to Warren P.I.

14th Friday morning fair and pleasant with light breeze from the Northward Steering N.W. by W. with all sail in the afternoon the weather still the same

Latitude by DR 14 = 33 S

15th Saturday morning commences with fair and pleasant with light breeze from the Eastward Steering N.W. with all sail at 10 am we raised the land and 10 sails in sight Steering for the land Bahia S. Salvador Bay of all saints at sun down we bent the chain to the anchor and went into Bahia for provisions all hands on deck waiting to get in with the light in sight about 10 miles off

Latitude 13 = 23 S.

16th Sunday morning fair and pleasant with strong breeze from the N.E. Steering in for the land in the afternoon we got in the Bay beating up to the anchoring ground we got in to Anchor at 3 pm in the morning and furled the sails

17th Monday morning the custom house boat came along side and sealed the hatches down and the Captain went on shore for provisions and sent of some fresh and fruit

18th Tuesday morning fair and pleasant the Captain went on shore to get wood and the Harbormaster went on liberty we got of some wood and water

19th Wednesday the Harbormaster went on shore on liberty we got of some more wood and the beef and bread and stowed it down

20th Thursday the Captain still busy employ getting of provisions we got some fruit and cleaned the ship for sea the Captain discharged George Case boat steward