

Journal

Tuesday 18 Aug 1844

Blowing heavy squalls in the first part middle and latter a heavy gale with rain saw a vessel with her main mast and Irizen topmast gone saw her make sail and stand to the S E showed English Colours

Winds	Courses	Latt	Long
N E to N W	S E

Wednesday 19 Aug

Blowing a strong gale from the North thick wet weather and a heavy cross swell on two sails in sight standing to the S E

Courses	Winds	Latt	Long
S E	N E

Thursday 22 Aug

Heavy squally wet weather through the first and middle parts latter mostly calms nothing in sight the winds very buffeting from South to S E

Courses	Winds	Latt	Long
E N E S W	S E	25° 26	28° 13

Friday 23 Aug

Blowing a strong gale from the North with thick wet weather one sail in sight standing to the South East

Courses	Winds	Latt	Long
S E	N N W N	25° 31 S	25° - W

Saturday 24 Aug

Still blowing a strong gale running under double reefed top sails and fore sail thick weather and heavy rain throughout

Courses	Winds	Latt	Long
S E	N N W

Sunday 25 Aug

Moderate breezes and cloudy wet weather for the most part several fin backs in sight

Courses	Winds	Latt	Long
S E	North

Journal

Monday 26 Aug 1844

Blear weather with light breezes through this day send down the main top galen yard to put new jaws on it the watch repaired a top galen sail

Courses	Winds	Latt	Long
E N E	S S E S E	27° 32' E

Tuesday 27 Aug

Light breezes through the most part of this day several rain squalls in the latter part of the day the watch employed picking oakum

Courses	Winds	Latt	Long
E by N	S E S E

Wednesday 28 Aug

Light breezes with cloudy weather throughout this day

Courses	Winds	Latt	Long
E N E	S E

Thursday 29 Aug

Calin through the most part of this day with cloudy weather two sails in sight standing to the South

Courses	Winds	Latt	Long
S by E	East

Friday 30 Aug

Blowing a strong gale from the East a heavy head boat swell running thick hazy weather took in all sail but double reefed main top sail and fore sail and laid the ship to

Courses	Winds	Latt	Long
S S E	East

Saturday 31 Aug

Blowing a strong gale with thick rainy weather throughout this day saw a barge standing to the Eastward

Courses	Winds	Latt	Long
S E	N		