

Journal

Wednesday 25 Sep 1844

Blowing a very heavy gale of wind from the West a tremendous sea running the ship labouring very heavy scudding under double reefed top sail and fore sail

Courses	Winds	Lat	Long
ESE	W. WSW	37° 44'

Thursday 26 Sep

Blowing a heavy gale throughout this day with a heavy sea running

Courses	Winds	Lat	Long
E by S	W, SW

Friday 27 Sep

Blowing very heavy through the first part middle part the gale broke with clear weather for the latter part

Courses	Winds	Lat	Long
S. E by E	SW

Saturday 28 Sep

Clear pleasant weather with very light winds and variable lowered after black fish succeeded in taking two got them on board and stood on our course again

Courses	Winds	Lat	Long
SE by E	SW WNW	36° 41'	28° 21' E

Sunday 29 Sep

This day commenced with clear weather and moderate breeze middle and latter part blowing a strong gale with cloudy weather the Capt. pretends to be very bad with the dyspepsy but it is nothing more than his stomach turned up with drunking rum

Courses	Winds	Lat	Long
ESE	N. N. W

Monday 30 Sep

Blowing very heavy with thick weather and a large sea running

Courses	Winds	Lat	Long
ESE	N. N. W

Journal

Tuesday 1st October 1844

First part blowing heavy middle and latter part moderate weather thick and foggy running across the Dutch banks to day but can see no whales caught one porpoise the Capt. skinned it himself he would not have done it only he was in luck

Courses	Winds	Lat	Long
ESE	N. N. W, N

Wednesday 2 Oct

Moderate weather but cloudy nothing in sight throughout this day

Courses	Winds	Lat	Long
ESE	N. N. W

Thursday 3 Oct

Cloudy weather and strong breezes throughout nothing in sight

Courses	Winds	Lat	Long
ESE	West

Friday 4 Oct

Blowing strong gales throughout with foggy weather no work going on what ever on board

Courses	Winds	Lat	Long
ESE	SW

Saturday 5 Oct

Clear weather with moderate breezes throughout several hundred birds in sight

Courses	Winds	Lat	Long
E by S	North	36° 25'	49° 30' E

Sunday 6 Oct

Cloudy weather with rain for the most part of this day strong breezes a bag is got up with every one putting something in for the first whale

Courses	Winds	Lat	Long
ESE	W. N. W	35° 58'	52° 43'