

Mr Adeline Gibb & Quarr

Friday Irish Northwinds breeze, in p.m. at April 2nd weather improving, wind at 10 p.m.
the started watch come on from on liberty Middle part mostly carrion rather part Irish breeze to clear at dawn the harbour watch sent on liberty

29.95
-84-
Saturday Commencement with Irish breeze
April 3rd clear the watch employed getting off 29.94
-85- Middle & latter parts much the same employed strong wind

Sunday Irish breeze and clear the most April 4th of these 24 hours employed getting off 29.94
-86- wind strong sea calm at 11 p.m.
Vigil Service. arrived in the harbour

Monday Irish breeze and mostly clear at 10 p.m.
April 5th Peter Philip come on board after an 29.94
-87- absence of 3 days - painted the coast in the Harbour side

Tuesday Commencement with Irish breeze and fair
April 6th at 10 p.m. the Barge hooked in the harbour 29.94
-88- the watch employed getting off wind and steaming in the harbour duty run sea

Wednesday Commencement with strong breeze and April 7th flying Middle and latter parts much 30
-89- the same with a few squalls of rain at dawn the harbour watch came
on liberty
Length 32 ft Depth 5 ft middle ship breadth 4 ft 6 in Mast 22 ft Rigging 17 ft 2 in shorter one 15 ft 4 in

Thursday This 24 hours Commencement with strong April 8th breeze and flying Middle part Irish carrion rather part Irish breeze and 30
-90- done got off 100 pounds of young one watch on liberty at the windy place

Friday Commencement with strong breeze
April 9th and clear Middle and latter 30
-91- parts more moderate one watch on liberty the other employed on waiting job

Saturday Irish breeze and clear the most April 10th of these 24 hours one watch on 30
-92- liberty the other employed getting off wind got a bullcock

Sunday Commencement with Irish breeze
April 11th and fine weather employed working 30
-93- ship on Main Middle and latter parts much the same got off some young potatoes

Monday Irish breeze and mostly clear the April 12th watch employed on waiting job in 30
-94- ships duty

Tuesday Moderate breeze and fine weather
April 13th at daybreak took on another 29.90
-95- and left Port of Spain I saw the North end during last watch the harbour and head of the channel but not