

Ship Edeline Gibby commenced haul
 These 24 hours commenced with calm
 Sunday weather and cloudy took an anchor April 24th and could without the shipping in 20th anchored midwater part calm latter part a light breeze and foggy got under way in company with the Genl. Scott Capt. Everett and Brannin & Horn in the entrance of the bay

Monday Commenced with breeze from April 25th South and clear at sunset the island being visible. 2nd Genl.
 30 Middle part light breeze latter 30 part moderate breeze from S.W.
 30 and clear course & the watch employed on various jobs in ship duty
 P.M. 41.

Tuesday First part of these 24 hours
 April 26th with Northwesterly breeze, de-30 - lay middle part much the 30 - same latter part hauled to S.W.
 30 - and squally the watch employed 30 - taking up a part of the sheeting heavily by the wind. P.M. 37.22 75.34

Wednesday These 24 hours commenced
 April 27th with strong southerly breeze &
 30 - heavy at 5 took ship &
 30 - heaved to at 2 sails in sight
 30 - to wind middle and latter 30 - part wind the same with squally weather the watch employed in ship duty 3 days in sight
 P.M. 37.10 70.50

Thursday Breeze from S.W. and April 28th Mercant heading by the wind west 30 25 with trade in the fore part 30 25 middle part wind and weather the 30 25 same latter part light breeze the 30 25 watch employed mending a spec-22 topsail. P.M. 37.00 78.00

Friday First part of these 24 hours
 Mostly calm and overcast
 April 29th took in the waistcoat 30 00 without the spar and best
 29. 98 the storm Mizzen middle
 29. 98 and latter parts strong breeze
 29. 98 southeasterly breeze and squally took in the topgallant sail & flyjib and single reef the fore topsail
 P.M. 37.55 80.30

Saturday These 24 hours commenced
 April 30th with strong breeze from S.W.
 30 - and cloudy with squally weather
 30 - then heading by the wind. W.
 30 - middle and latter parts the wind 30 - from South and S.W. heading by the wind) west. P.M. 37.46 82.27

Sunday Commenced with brisk breeze April 31st and cloudy at 10 pm took 29. 90 ship South. Middle
 29. 92 and latter parts brisk breeze
 29. 92 and clearing heading S.W. and
 29. 92 S.W. P.M. 38.27 83.00
 05