

1845

Monday These 24 hours commencing with brisk breeze from S.W. and cloudy with strong flow at 12 pm took ship westward Middle part Moderate with light squally rain
 29.94
 29.94
 29.94
 29.94
 29.94

Tuesday These 24 hours commencing with brisk southerly breeze and cloudy at 1 pm hauled to W. & West part the foretop masts treading sail Course S.W. Middle part increased to a gale took in all sail to a close reefed mainsail at mid night hauled to S.W. with part of strong gale
 29.90
 29.80
 29.75
 29.75
 29.60

Wednesday Commencing with a gale from S.W. at 12 pm set the fore sail Middle and latter part a gale with strong squally at 8 pm took in the foresail heading S.W. at 11. 82.47
 29.95
 29.75
 29.75
 29.75

Thursday Commencing with a gale from S.W. at 12 pm took ship westward Middle part Moderate at the topsails and courses latter part strong breeze from S.W. and squally course South
 29.75
 29.75
 29.80
 29.80
 29.80

Friday These 24 hours commencing with strong westerly breeze and squally rain single up with a heavy southerly squall at 1 am hauled suddenly to S.W. with a heavy squall latter part brisk breeze from South and squally got in the flyjibboom and sent down the fore & mizzen (topgallant & main) masts the jib to mast
 29.78
 29.70
 29.70
 29.70

Saturday Commencing with strong breeze from Southward and squally at 3 pm took in the fore & mizzen top sails heading S.W. Middle part a gale from S.W. at 12 pm took in all sail to a close reefed topsails heading S.W. at 11. 83.38
 29.72
 29.75
 29.75
 29.78
 60

Sunday Commencing with strong southerly breeze and thick weather heading S.W. at 12 pm took in all sail to a close reefed topsails heading S.W. at 11. 82.35
 29.90
 29.80
 29.75
 29.70

Monday These 24 hours commencing with strong southerly breeze and gale and cloudy at 6 pm took ship westward Middle part Moderate at the topsails and courses latter part Moderate at the topsails and mainsail heading S.W. at 11. 82.39
 29.68
 29.65
 29.65
 29.65
 60