

H	M	H	Courses	Winds	Transactions on Tuesday 14 May 1793
2	2		86° E	N. N. W.	Begins a moderate westerly breeze
4	4	1	86° W	N. W.	and gradually increasing at 3 P.M.
6	3	1	East	N. E. W.	took in royals and top gallant sails
8	6				at 8 headed to the Southward
10	5		South
12	4	1		South	Later Part a brisk wind and increas-
2	4	1			ing at 3 P.M. haled up to the topmast
4	3	1			set all Draining sail steered as P.R.
6	3	1	8 aft	South	Bottom at 3 P.M. saw several hump-
8	6	1			backs whales and a number of Calves
10	6	1	3 1/2°	S. S. W.	the drags took in royals and with 12	7	1		S. W.	staysails and fore top gallant sail was a quantity of grass in the water
					Set by Obser 26° 38' South
			3d Cours	Diff / Sept	Diff Lat / Long
			837°	161 / 35	26° 38' / 15° 03'
H	M	H	Courses	Winds	Transactions on Wednesday 15 May
2	8		2 1/2°	N. W.	Begins brisk breeze and clear
4	7	1	2 1/2°		at 1 P.M. set the fore topmast
6	6	1	2 1/2°		staysails to the board foremast
8	6	1	2 1/2°		steered as P.R. Bottom at 3 P.M.
10	6	1			haled of 2 1/2° took in the
12	7				top mast staysails haled down
2	7		South		the staysails, jib haled down
4	6		2 1/2°	N. W.	Later Part brisk winds and
6	6		2 1/2°		a large swell from the continent
8	6		2 1/2°		at 3 P.M. haled in towards the
10	3		2 1/2°		Eastward set all Draining sail
12	4		South	S. S. W.	at 9 P.M. took the Draining to off water sides Employed in painting the Cabin and the air board boat was a quantity of large sparrows in the water passed by a few fish of Red snout
			3d Cours	Diff / Sept	Diff Lat / Long
			N. W.	123 / 24	121 / 26
					24° 57' / 14° 27'

H M H			Courses	Winds	Transactions on Thursday 16 May 1793
2	4		South	SW	Begins moderate breeze and fine weather the water green
4	3	1			Later Part light air of wind and good weather shifted the bearing void to opposite sides and steered at 6 P.M. steered more in at 9 kept more to the Eastward Employed in
6	4		2 1/2°		undrew Tides of the Ship
8	3		2 1/2°	SW	Set by Obser 23° 30' South
10	2	1	2 1/2°
12	4
H M H			3d Cours	Diff / Sept	Diff Lat / Long	Lat in / Long in
			South	91 / 0	25 / 0	23° 30' / 14° 27'
H M H			Courses	Winds	Transactions on Friday 17 May 1793
2	6	1	2 1/2°	SW	Begins a moderate breeze and good weather increasing haled in for the land at 3 P.M. saw the land bearing 86° Distance & Logues saw a ship in with the land at 5 P.M. spoke her the Ship and have ^{George} of London Capt Wilkes from the Coast of Georgia with 400 & 500 barrels of Sperrimutty he informed us that he had seen one night whale this day more round and beach off the Captain went on board at 7 returned at 10 P.M. took and steered at 12 took at 12 P.M. took and steered in at 1 took and here too until daylight took and here too until daylight then made all Draining sail steered moderate and haled round to the Eastward and Northward and from the to the N. W. and gradually increase so that the sailing will be Observed in 23° 13' and 23° 14' South	